Re: United States v. John Wall et al
Crim. No. SAG:19-0500

Dear Judge Gallagher:

I am writing the Court to provide a status update in the above-captioned case. Several plea agreements have been sent to defense counsel and the Government is awaiting execution of the plea agreements. Upon receipt of the executed plea agreements, the parties will contact chambers to schedule re-arraignments.

Given the present posture of the case, with the exception of Defendant Wall, who remains a fugitive, it appears the case can be resolved without the necessity of a trial.

If the Court agrees, another status report will be provided in thirty days.

Very truly yours,
Robert K. Hur
United States Attorney
